

GOING GLOBAL | PROGRAMME

MORNING

9.00 - 9.30 | Registration

9.30 - 9.45 | Welcome

Speaker: Professor Ged Byrne, Director of Global Engagement, HEE

9.45 - 9.55 | Identifying your ambitions for the day

This session will surface the issues that delegates would like to address
Facilitators: David Keen, Head of Global Workforce Engagement, HEE & Charlotte Ashton, Communications Manager, THET

9.55 - 10.30 | How to capture your learning

Framing global engagement in a learning context, presenting that tools that will help you reflect on your learning and understand the relevancy to your work in the UK

Facilitators: Fleur Kitsell, Associate Director of Workforce Transformation, IGH & Helen Slattery, Head of Global Health, Gulu-Man Link

10.30 - 11.00 | Coffee break

11.00 - 12.15 | Workshops

1. How to personally prepare

An insight into how to emotionally prepare to work overseas.

Facilitator: Helen Slattery, Head of Global Health, Gulu-Man Link

2. How to professionally prepare

An insight into the skills required for different roles and an insight into the courses, tools and practical support available.

Facilitator: Marcus Wootton

3. Safeguarding

A deeper understanding of the responsibilities we have in relation to safeguarding we witness/are reported to us

Facilitator: Professor Louise Ackers, Chair in Global Social Justice, University of Salford

4. Making a difference

Managing expectations of how much change is possible

Facilitator: Susan Amoaten, Quality and Learning Manager, THET

12.30 - 13.30 | Lunch

AFTERNOON

13.30 - 13.40 | Learning reflection

A facilitated session to check that delegates are getting what they want out of the day

Facilitators: David Keen, Head of Global Workforce Engagement, HEE & Charlotte Ashton, Communications Manager, THET

13.45 - 15.15 | Workshops

1. How to personally prepare

An insight into how to emotionally prepare to work overseas.

Facilitator: Helen Slattery, Head of Global Health, Gulu-Man Link

2. How to professionally prepare

An insight into the skills required for different roles and an insight into the courses, tools and practical support available.

Facilitator: Marcus Wootton

3. Safeguarding

A deeper understanding of the responsibilities we have in relation to safeguarding we witness/are reported to us

Facilitator: Professor Louise Ackers, Chair in Global Social Justice, University of Salford

4. Making a difference

Managing expectations of how much change is possible

Facilitator: Susan Amoaten, Quality and Learning Manager, THET

15.15 - 15.40 | Coffee break

15.40 - 16.10 | Panel discussion

A reflection with workshop facilitators on the key issues raised during the sessions

Facilitators: Graeme Chisholm, Policy Manager, THET

16.10 - 16.30 | Global opportunities and next steps

DAY AT A GLANCE